

May 12, 1983

LB 628

have been asking about the lunch hour. We will be breaking as usual for the lunch hour and come back at 1:30. This bill should wind up approximately at noon. If we have time, if it is too quick we will try to squeeze in another one. But we will break between ~~twelve and one-thirty~~ approximately.

CLERK AND ASSISTANT CLERK: (Continue to read LB 628 on Final Reading.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. With the emergency clause. 33 required with the emergency clause. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 34 ayes, 14 nays, 1 present and not voting. (Vote appears on page 2224 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: We will proceed with the Final Reading, however, I did wish to introduce you to some special guests, they are in Nebraska as guests of the Nebraska AFL/CIO and Senator Dave Newell and they are a group of free trade unionists. Their names are from Barbados, Cedric Murrell who is Second Vice President of the Barbados National Union of Public Workers. From India, Ram Prakash Mishra, All Indian Secretary; from Indonesia, Sjafrul Roeslan, Treasurer Indonesian Food and Beverage Workers Union. From Liberia, Joe S. Mason, Assistant Secretary General the National Union of Plantation Agriculture, Forestry and Allied Workers. From Sierra Leone, Kandeh Yillah, Secretary General and Labor Congress, Secretary General Sierra Leone Electricity Workers Union. From Sri Lanka, two people S. V. Lucas Fernando Secretary General, All Ceylon, Indian Fishing Labor Union, Director of the All Ceylon Federation of Free Trade Unions and also A. W. Atukorala, Director of Organizations All Ceylon Federation of Free Trade Unions, President of Public Services Employees Union; and from the Sudan, Fadlalla Ahmed Mohamed, member of the Central Committee of Sudanese Worker Trade Union Federation and Secretary General of the General Trade Union of the Sugar and Beverage Industries and also Ali Abdulla Shawish, Executive Secretary of the Sudan Workers Trade Union Federation, Deputy Treasurer of the Central Corporation for Workers and General Secretary of the General Union for the Agricultural Section. Also with them is their team manager, Lawrence Healy. The policy of the United States is to encourage the active roles of labor movements in democratic processes and in the national development efforts reaching the workers and the poor majority by